Amit Shah Inaugurates 'VINIMAY' Land Port Management System for Digital Border Management

Published On: 11-06-2026

Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation Amit Shah inaugurated the Land Port Management System (LPMS) 'VINIMAY' in New Delhi to modernize border management and facilitate seamless cargo and passenger movement across India's land ports.?

Key Points:

The system enables end-to-end digital workflows for cargo and passenger processing.

Features include slot booking, payments, tracking and single-window clearances.

The platform facilitates secure real-time exchange of logistics and regulatory information.

VINIMAY integrates the operations of customs, immigration authorities, border guarding forces and other regulatory agencies.

The initiative aims to enhance efficiency, transparency and security in cross-border trade and passenger movement.

The system is aligned with the Government's vision of smart border management.

LPMS is integrated with national digital platforms such as ICEGATE, ULIP and the motor vehicle ecosystem.

The platform is expected to reduce paperwork by 90%, cut cargo truck waiting time by 22–35%, and reduce gate processing time by 40–60%.

Amit Shah also inaugurated stakeholder accommodation facilities at Dawki Land Port (Meghalaya) and Srimantapur Land Port (Tripura).
