INDIAN ARMY CONDUCTS 'EXERCISE BRAHMASHIRA' IN GUJARAT

Published On: 12-11-2025

On 10 November 2025, the Indian Army(IA) conducted 'Exercise Brahmarshira' in the Rann and Creek Sector of Kachchh, Gujarat, as part of the larger Tri-Services Exercise Trishul to validate integrated operational capabilities across land, sea, and air.

About Exercise Brahmarshira:

Participants: The exercise brought together the IA, Indian Navy (IN), Indian Air Force (IAF), Indian Coast Guard (ICG), and Border Security Force (BSF).

Integration: Combines Joint Task Forces (JTF), advanced Joint Control Centre (JCC), and robust operational infrastructure to sustain multi-domain operations.

Focus: The exercise tests new structures, advanced technologies, and adaptive warfighting strategies, emphasizing precision, coordination, and rapid multi-domain responses across land, sea, and air.

Alignment: It aligns with the Army's "Decade of Transformation" initiative by testing new force structures, advanced technologies, and the "Whole-of-Nation" approach to defence.
