

KAMARAJ IAS ACADEMY
Only IAS Academy by Grandson of "Perunthalaivar Kamarajar"

Indian Institute of Packaging (IIP)

Published On: 04-11-2025

About:

The Indian Institute of Packaging (IIP) is an autonomous body functioning under the Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India.

Established: 14th May 1966

Headquarters: Mumbai (also houses principal laboratories).

Regional Branches:

Chennai (1971)

Kolkata (1976)

Delhi (1986)

Hyderabad (2006)

Objectives:

To promote exports through innovative packaging design and development.

To upgrade the overall standards of packaging within the country.

Key Functions:

Testing & evaluation of packaging materials and packages.

Consultancy and R&D in packaging science and technology.

Training and education in packaging for artisans, weavers, exporters, and stakeholders.

Conducts skill development programmes on innovative and aesthetic packaging.

Collaborations:

Works closely with commodity boards and export promotion councils, Including APEDA, Spices Board, MPEDA, Tea Board, and MoFPI.

International Linkages:

Founding Member: Asian Packaging Federation (APF)

Member:

Kamaraj IAS Academy

Plot A P.127, AF block, 6 th street, 11th Main Rd, Shanthi Colony, Anna Nagar, Chennai, Tamil Nadu 600040

Phone: 044 4353 9988 / 98403 94477 / Whatsapp : 09710729833

Institute of Packaging Professionals (IOPP), USA

Institute of Packaging (IOP), UK

Technical Association of Pulp and Paper Industry (TAPPI), USA

Major Events:

INDIAPACK: Biennial International Packaging Exhibition.

INDIASTAR: National contest recognizing excellence in packaging.