India's total trade deficit narrows due to low oil prices and increased service exports

Published On: 16-06-2025

Context

- India's overall trade deficit narrowed to $6.6 billion in May 2025, down nearly 30% from its level in May last year, as total imports fell largely due to a fall in oil prices while total exports grew on the back of a strong performance by the services sector, official data show.
- According to the monthly data released by the Ministry of Commerce and Industry on Monday, total exports grew 2.8% to $71.1 billion in May 2025 — up from $69.2 billion in May 2024 — with exports in the service sector growing 9.4% to $32.4 billion

Dip in deficit

Strong showing by service exports, which grew by 9.4% to $32.4 billion in May 2025, boosted overall exports
