Intergovernmental Committee for Safeguarding of the Intangible Cultural Heritage

Published On: 08-12-2025

India will host the 20th session of the UNESCO Intergovernmental Committee for Safeguarding of the Intangible Cultural Heritage from 8 to 13 December 2025 in New Delhi.

About Intergovernmental Committee for Safeguarding of the Intangible Cultural Heritage

Intangible cultural heritage (ICH), as UNESCO defines it, includes the practices, knowledge, expressions, objects, and spaces that communities see as part of their cultural identity.

For the Safeguarding of ICH, UNESCO adopted the 2003 Convention on 17th October 2003 during its 32nd General Conference in Paris

The Convention formally established mechanisms for international cooperation, support, and recognition, laying the foundation for UNESCO's ICH lists and the subsequent work of the Intergovernmental Committee.

The purposes of this Convention are

To safeguard the ICH

To ensure respect for the ICH of the communities, groups, and individuals concerned;

To raise awareness at the local, national, and international levels of the importance of the ICH, and ensure mutual appreciation thereof

To provide for global cooperation and assistance.

The Intergovernmental Committee for Safeguarding of the ICH advances the objectives of the 2003 Convention and ensures their effective implementation across Member States

In fulfilling this mandate, the committee:

Promotes and monitors the objectives and implementation of the 2003 Convention.

Provides guidance on best practices and recommends measures for safeguarding ICH.

Prepares and submits to the General Assembly the draft plan for the use of the Intangible Cultural Heritage Fund.

Mobilises additional resources for the Fund in accordance with the Convention's provisions.

Drafts and proposes operational directives for the implementation of the Convention.

Examines periodic reports submitted by States Parties and compiles summaries for the General Assembly.
