

National Energy Conservation Day (December 14)

Published On: 14-12-2025

Context

- National Energy Conservation Day is observed annually on 14 December.
- In 2025, it was commemorated on December 14, 2025, highlighting India's progress in energy efficiency and clean energy transition.

Key Facts

- Organising Authority: Bureau of Energy Efficiency (BEE)
- Administrative Ministry: Ministry of Power
- First Observed: 1991
- Objective:
 - Promote energy conservation and efficiency across sectors.
 - Create mass awareness about reducing energy intensity.
 - Showcase best practices by industries, institutions, and states.

Major 2025 Announcement

- India has achieved 50% of its total installed electricity capacity from non-fossil fuel sources.
- Includes solar, wind, hydro and nuclear energy.
- This milestone has been achieved ahead of the 2030 target committed under the Paris Agreement.
- Reinforces India's Nationally Determined Contributions (NDCs).

National Energy Conservation Awards (NECA) 2025

About NECA

- Instituted by BEE to recognise:

oIndustries

oCommercial and residential buildings

oInstitutions and state governments

- Awarded for measurable reduction in energy consumption and adoption of energy-efficient technologies.

NECA 2025 Highlights

- Top Performing State: Andhra Pradesh

oReceived the award for the fourth consecutive year.

- Top Union Territory: Chandigarh

Kamaraj IAS Academy

Plot A P.127, AF block, 6 th street, 11th Main Rd, Shanthi Colony, Anna Nagar, Chennai, Tamil Nadu 600040
Phone: 044 4353 9988 / 98403 94477 / Whatsapp : 09710729833

- New Award Category Introduced:

- o Social Media Influencers and Digital Content Creators

- o Aimed at recognising their role in public awareness and behavioural change related to energy conservation.