RRU–SSB MoU on National Security Training

Published On: 24-03-2026

Rashtriya Raksha University (RRU) and Sashastra Seema Bal (SSB) Academy signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) in New Delhi to enhance national security training and accreditation. The initiative aims to strengthen India's internal security framework by integrating academic learning with field-level training.

Objective of the Agreement

The MoU seeks to bridge the gap between academic research and practical border management requirements. Under this partnership, RRU will provide academic accreditation to training programmes conducted at the SSB Academy, ensuring formal recognition of skills acquired by personnel.

Key Features of the Collaboration

RRU will accredit existing and future courses conducted by SSB.

Exchange of faculty expertise, training tools, and infrastructure between both institutions.

SSB personnel will receive hands-on training through labs and field workshops.

Focus on technology-driven solutions such as smart border management and surveillance.

Courses may lead to certificates, diplomas, or degrees under academic frameworks.

Significance for National Security

This collaboration will help modernise the training curriculum of SSB, focusing on evolving challenges like border surveillance and internal security threats. It also promotes upskilling and reskilling of personnel, improving operational efficiency.

Rashtriya Raksha University:

Rashtriya Raksha University is a public central university and an autonomous institute located in Gandhinagar, Gujarat, India.

Ajit Doval is one of the board members of this university. It is recognized as an Institution of National Importance under the Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA), Government of India, by an act of the Indian Parliament. [1] RRU specializes in national security, cyber security, digital forensics, and internal security.

It was established by the Government of Gujarat, India, in 2009. In 2020, via Act 31 of Parliament of India, the Government of India took over the university from the Government of Gujarat.

The university offers undergraduate, postgraduate, research degree programmes, and professional diploma and certificate programmes.

The institute was inaugurated by the former chief minister of Gujarat Narendra Modi on 22 July 2010.

The university has been upgraded as Rashtriya Raksha University, a national university, as an Institution of National Importance through the Rashtriya Raksha University Act, passed by Parliament in October 2020.

Sashastra Seema Bal

The Sashastra Seema Bal is a central armed police force in India, under the Ministry of Home Affairs. It is responsible for guarding India's borders with Nepal and Bhutan.

The force was originally set up under the name Special Service Bureau in 1963 in the aftermath of the Sino-Indian War to strengthen India's border areas against enemy operations.
