

KAMARAJ IAS ACADEMY
Only IAS Academy by Grandson of "Perunthalaivar Kamarajar"

23rd Law Commission

Published On: 05-09-2024

Why in news?

President Droupadi Murmu has approved the formation of the 23rd Law Commission of India for a three-year term, effective from 1 September 2024 to 31 August 2027.

- The 22nd Law Commission's term ended on 31 August 2024.
- It had been functioning without a chairperson for several months, delaying critical reports on issues such as the Uniform Civil Code and simultaneous elections.

The previous chairperson: Justice Ritu Raj Awasthi.

- He resigned in March 2024 after a 17-month tenure

Law Commission:

- The Law Commission is an non-statutory body constituted by the GoI, every three years.
- Its major function is to work for legal reform and to act as an advisory body to the Ministry of Law and Justice.
- The first Law Commission was established during the British era in 1834 by the Charter Act of 1833 and was presided over by Lord Macaulay.
- It recommended codification of the Penal Code and the Criminal Procedure Code.
- The second, third and fourth Law Commissions were constituted in 1853, 1861 and 1879 respectively
- The Indian Code of Civil Procedure, the Indian Contract Act, the Indian Evidence Act, the Transfer of Property Act etc. are products of the first four Law Commissions.
- However, the first Law Commission of Independent India was constituted in 1955 with M. C. Setalvad, as its Chairman.
- It has so far submitted 277 reports.

A law commission is created when the Union government passes a resolution for the formation a new commission after the expiry of the last one.

- After the resolution is passed, and the President gives assent to it, the government has the liberty to choose the chairperson for the new commission.

Composition

- A full-time Chairperson (usually a retired SUPREME COURT judge or Chief Justice of a HIGH COURT);
- Four full-time Members (including Member- Secretary)
- Secretary, Department of Legal Affairs, as ex-officio Member;
- Secretary, Legislative Department as ex-officio Member; and

Kamaraj IAS Academy

Plot A P.127, AF block, 6 th street, 11th Main Rd, Shanthi Colony, Anna Nagar, Chennai, Tamil Nadu 600040

Phone: 044 4353 9988 / 98403 94477 / Whatsapp : 09710729833

- Not more than five part-time Members.

Terms of Reference for the 23rd Law Commission

Review and Repeal of Obsolete Laws: Identify laws for repeal, develop a Standard Operating Procedure (SoP) for periodic reviews, and suggest necessary amendments.

Law and Poverty: Examine laws affecting the poor and conduct audits of socio-economic legislation.

Judicial Administration: Address delays, reduce costs, and simplify court processes to enhance case disposal efficiency.

Directive Principles and Constitutional Objectives: Review laws in light of Directive Principles and suggest improvements to achieve constitutional objectives.

Gender Equality: Review existing laws and suggest amendments to promote gender equality.

Revision of Central Acts: Revise significant Central Acts to address anomalies and ambiguities.

Government References: Consider and convey views on law and judicial administration topics referred by the Government.

International Research Assistance: Provide research assistance to foreign countries as referred by the Government.

Globalization Impact: Examine the impact of globalization on food security and unemployment, and recommend measures to protect marginalized interests.