K V Subramanian Committee

Published On: 07-08-2022

Capital markets regulator SEBI constituted a committee, which will advise it on measures to facilitate ease of doing business by Foreign Portfolio Investors (FPIs) in India.

In addition, the advisory committee will suggest measures required to encourage FPI participation in the bond market and advise on issues related to investments and operations of such investors in the Indian financial markets.

The 15-member committee will be chaired by K V Subramanian, former chief economic adviser to the Government of India

The committee also comprises members from the Reserve Bank of India (RBI)

Other terms of reference of the committee include review investment avenues available for FPIs and advise on feasibility of new investment avenues.

The panel will be required to recommend measures for simplification of FPI regulations and to advise on custodian-related matters pertaining to such foreign investors.
