Sri Dattatreya temple

Published On: 23-08-2022

The Karnataka government has placed before the state High Court its order to constitute a panel, comprising both Hindus and Muslims, to supervise religious ceremonies at the disputed Datta Peetha shrine in Chikmagalur.

Located in the Bababudangiri Hills, the Sri Guru Dattatreya Bababudan Swamy Dargah / Peetha, revered by both Hindus and Muslims, has been a bone of contention for around three decades, with right-wing Hindu activists projecting it as the Babri Masjid of the south.

A temple in the name of Dattatreya Devaru and a dargah in the name of Baba Budan Dargah are both located in the cave in the Bababudangiri Hills.
